

Epsom Community Presentation about Drug Abuse in New Hampshire

On Monday April 4th at 7PM in the gymnasium at Epsom Central School there will be a community presentation about the NH drug crisis.

Are you a concerned parent, friend, educator, family or community member? YES

JOIN US

Speakers

- Dr. David Hirsh, an ER doctor at Concord Hospital and Medical Director for Capital Area Fire Compact.
- Deputy Chief Shawn Riley of the Laconia Fire Dept.
- Officer Eric Adams, Prevention Enforcement Treatment Officer of the Laconia Police Dept.
- Jon Kesty, family liaison from HOPE for NH.

Date: Monday, April, 4, 2016

Time: 7-9 PM

Location: Epsom Central School Gymnasium

RESOURCES
FACTS
INFORMATION SUPPORT

This important community discussion originated from Epsom Selectman working together with members of local police and fire departments in partnership with the Epsom School District.

For more information contact the Epsom Fire Chief, Stewart Yeaton, @ (603) 736-9291.

